

External Job Opportunity

“Share the gospel always, and, when necessary, use words.”

KNOX AREA RESCUE MINISTRIES
Restoring Lives in Jesus' Name

Knox Area Rescue Ministries (KARM) provides emergency shelter for men and women who are hungry or have no other place to sleep at night. And we also have transitional programs available to men and women seeking help to overcome the challenged areas of their lives. All services are offered out of an abundance of true Christian hospitality, provided by trained staff and volunteers.

KARM is seeking a qualified FrontLine Team Members PRN (on-call, as-needed) positions to serve on the front lines of ministry, creating a safe, respectful, hospitable environment in which basic necessities of life are provided to support the care of guests. Maintain a fertile and stimulating environment of hope for client commitment to personal change. Utilize community knowledge and administrative skills to advocate in connecting guests to needed resources. Monitor the activities of guests in all areas of the facility. Offer one-on-one care, encouragement, and support. Maintain necessary documentation for efficient service delivery and accomplishing of ministry purpose. Supervise and train volunteers as assigned. Exhibit a caring Christian lifestyle to guests, co-workers, volunteers and donors.

To express an interest in this position:

- Submit a current resume and employment application (click here).
- Submit a cover letter answering in detail the following questions:
 1. How would you describe your faith in Jesus? How has this impacted your view of work?
 2. Why in particular are you drawn to this position?
 3. What aspects of your background have most directly prepared you for this position? Please comment specifically about the key duties of the position.

Please e-mail one package of information containing the three items above to scannon@karm.org or fax to 865.633.7650.